

1 DAY COURSE ON: HAZARD IDENTIFICATION AND RISK ASSESSMENT

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Explaining the legal and specified requirements for conducting continuous risk assessments
- Preparing and conducting continuous risk assessments
- Initiation of remedial action and follow up on procedures on continuous risk assessments

COURSE CONTENTS:

- What is HIRA?
- Who do we need to do a HIRA on?
- Who will / can do a HIRA?
- How do you conduct a HIRA?
- What is a hazard and risk?
- 5 Steps to conduct a HIRA
- Case study

DURATION: 1 Day

TARGET GROUP: This course has been designed to assist the new employee, current employee, supervisors, managers and new Health and Safety representatives, Risk managers and shop stewards to become familiar with the Health and Safety legislation incorporated inside the organisation.

CERTIFICATION: After attending this course, learners will receive a certificate of attendance.

This course is based on the following Unit Standard:

Title: Conduct a continuous risk assessment in a workplace
Unit Standard: 120330

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- A deposit of 50% must be paid on reservation of courses. The remainder 50% will be paid on the day of completion of the course.
- A minimum of 5 people must be booked for training to be cost effective.
- ID copies of learners must be submitted with learner registration.
- An additional travelling fee will be charged at AA Rates for all training conducted at client premises.
- Top-up training as per Competency requirements – Learners who are found to be not competent will be given re-training and a re-assessment on full course costs, terms and conditions.